Spring 2014

Philip Jacob Peace Memorial Award

Full-time graduate and undergraduate students in the University of Hawai‘i system may apply.
(This year $500 will be awarded.)

Purpose: This award was established in memory of Professor Philip E. Jacob (1914-1985), who devoted his personal and academic life to the search for peace and intercultural understanding. Dr. Jacob was convinced that war and the preservation of human values are incompatible with each other. He tried through scholarship, teaching, and public service to strengthen bonds of international cooperation and the processes of peacemaking.

This award will be given to a student who demonstrates, though a completed project, proposed project, or an equivalent endeavor, a commitment to peacemaking leadership, peace studies, conflict resolution, intercultural understanding, or other efforts toward achieving peace.

Eligibility: Applicant must be a full-time graduate or undergraduate student of the University of Hawai‘i system and demonstrate an interest in peacemaking leadership, peace studies, conflict resolution, or intercultural understanding. Must have maintained at least a 2.5 grade point average.

Evaluation Criteria: Applicants will be evaluated on their ability to implement or document his/her proposal or project to show: the proposal or project’s merit and potential or achieved impact; likelihood of successful completion for proposals or demonstration of success for completed projects. Applicant’s ability and academic record will also be considered. If no suitable applications are received, no awards will be made.
