INTERVENTION PRACTITIONERS' TALK STORY II

Kukui Center Conference Rm. (below the Mediation Center of the Pacific)
245 North Kukui Street

5:15 pm Registration • 5:30 pm Pupus • 5:45 - 7 pm Storytelling

The first was a success and we are anxious to gather for our second quarterly meet-up for conflict resolution professionals and eager up-and-comers. Guided by a different theme each time, the informal gathering is intended to allow for reflection, feedback (and likely a few laughs) on anything from process to client behavior to self-care. Participation is flexible. Seasoned and new practitioners are welcomed.

January 22 Theme: "Challenging People and Behaviors" Come ready to share a story about a difficult behavior you have experienced and the tools you use to deal with difficult situations.

Hosts rotate each quarter. Tracey Wiltgen, Director of the Mediation Center of the Pacific, will host this meeting. Free parking is available in the lot in front of the building. Refreshments will be provided. We hope to see you!

Seating is limited to 25. Must RSVP: Nathan Nakaido at the Mediation Center of the Pacific – nathan@mediatehawaii.org.

Co-sponsors: the Association for Conflict Resolution-Hawaii, the ADR Section of the Hawaii State Bar Association, The Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution, and the Mediation Center of the Pacific.
